

PERSONAL STATEMENT

UX/UI designer & front-end developer passionate about solving problems through methodical & stylish design.

A highly organized individual passionate about designing and creating interactive digital products with a comprehensive user-centered design process from user research to beautiful pixels. Seeking a position to build upon a deep interest in usability, design, and development.

SKILLS

- Responsive Web Design
- App Design
- UX/UI Design
- Wireframing / Prototyping
- User Testing
- PSD to Code Workflow
- CSS Animations
- SVG Art / Iconography
- HTML Emails
- Web Asset Design
- Interaction Design

TECHNOLOGIES

- Adobe Illustrator
- Adobe Photoshop
- Sketch App
- Flinto
- Principle
- HTML5
- CSS3
- Bootstrap 4
- JavaScript

EDUCATION

2016 - Current

Self Learning / Practice

HTML, CSS, and JavaScript through multiple online courses. Design and development skills continue to be strengthened through further research as well as personal projects.

Online Courses & Tutorials

Feb - Aug 2018

UX/UI Bootcamp Completion

User research, testing, user-centric design, front-end technologies, and much more. Worked with team members to create projects starting from research leading all the way up to coded prototypes.

University of California, Irvine
Dept. of Continuing Education

2011 - 2015

BA in Studio Art

Design fundamentals, art theory, and traditional art mediums such as painting, photography, and sculpture.

University of California, Irvine

EXPERIENCE

2018 - Current

UX/UI Design / Front End Dev. Self Study

Led end-to-end design and development on concept projects for mobile applications, website redesigns, an interactive conference website, emails, and more.

Personal Projects / Freelance Work

2015 - 2017

English Second Language Instructor

English teacher for 2 elementary schools in Mito, Japan. Taught 30 classes per week (K-6) in addition to the time dedicated to lesson planning and material construction.

Ibaraki Prefectural Government,
Japan